SUBJECT : BUTENKO, Walter

SOURCE : [   ]

DATE : 9 March, 1961

While in Syracuse, N.Y. SOURCE talked to a group of students asking their reaction to a trip to the plastic exhibit in Kiev. SUBJECT,who is chairman to the Ukrainian student group in Syracuse expressed interest in making a trip and asked SOURCE for an application form and to whom to send such an application. SOURCE did not commit himself but promised to give information on such possiblilities when he gets ~~immur~~ it. SUBJECT said that he might go this year or next year after he finished his classes. There was no indication on the part of Source as to individual trip . Only the Kiev exhibit was discussed as a possiblility.

SUBJECT's BI data:

Born 25 December, 1939, probably Kharkov.

Arried in US in March , 1950

US citizenship 1957.

Student of architecture (last year) at the Syracuse University.

His close relatives live in the US(Syracuse),far relatives in Kharkov.

Tall, handsome young man. Knows well Ukrainian and Russian languages.

Address: P.O.Box 54, University Station,Syracuse 10, N.Y.

SOURCE described him :"he looks like a serious, well balanced, intelligent man." Discussing the Kiev plastics exhibit SUBJECT expressed interest also from the professional point of view as architect and said that to participate in this exhibit also as an architedt would be very interesting for him. A trip to Ukraine interested him also from the financial point of view ,because he must work in order to continue his studies.

SUBJECT also gave the name of his fiancee who might be willing to go to Ukraine too. She is

DOMBOZEWSKY, Didi

Address : 4880 Kirk Rd, Youngstown , Ohio

She studies History and English at the University of Youngstown.

She was born in Galicia (Western Ukraine) in the 1940s. Her mother was a teacher at the DP Camp "Freimann" in Munich, Germany. At the present time she is in the US. Her father lives also in Youngstown.